ACQUA VITA Our motto since 1995, "If you wouldn't eat it, don't put it on your body". Suzanne Catty and company are committed to sourcing and supplying only the finest organic and sustainably wildcrafted essential oils, hydrosols and carrier oils, produced exclusively for health. These certified and chemically specific oils account for less than 2% of global essential oil production, if stock runs out we do not substitute a lesser grade. Prices of these rare products are subject to change without notice. Essential Oils have good years and bad years like fine wines and supplies are often limited or run out. I hope that you appreciate what ACQUA VITA offers. Your nose will tell you the difference and the effects these oils and hydrosols will have on your health will confirm what you can smell. Aromatherapy is one of the most pleasurable ways to ensure your good health. Walk in beauty.
